PRODUCTION CODE DATE INFORMATION

All products manufactured by La Paz Products, Inc. (La Paz Premium, Quickway Professional Bar Mix, Quickway Gold Standard, Quick-Mix & private label) have a 5 digit code date printed on the top of the cap and the outer carton to identify the date of production. In addition, the outer carton is marked with a "Best Used By " date which is based on the recommended shelf life of the item.

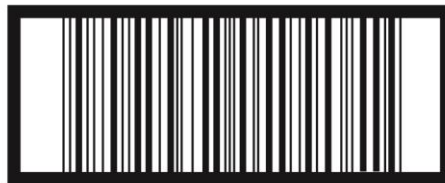

A Julian (5 digit) calendar number is used, such as 20105. The first two numbers represent the year the product was produced (20 = 2020). The next three numbers represent the day of the year the product was produced (105 = 105th day of year 2020). The carton is marked with the best before date of 04/13/2020.

Using the example given, product manufactured on April 14, 2020 is marked with a production date code number 20105 and a Best Used By date of 04/13/2021 which represents the recommend shelf life of 365 days for this product.
